How to give the right size

- For example this picture is a spa cover , you can measure the length and width easily
- How to calculate the corner raduis : you can see the red arrow shows on the picture.
- You iust need to measure the length , thats the corner radius , it is 200mm on the picture.
- When you measure it on the spa , you use two ruler , calculate it from the curve part (such as here shows).
- Then use another ruler from aother side , make the two rulers vertical , then you can know the corner radius.
